

PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy is incorporated into and subject to the terms of the Business eStore Merchant User Agreement. When subscribing to our services, you expressly agree to the terms of our Merchant User Agreement and inherently agree to respect our Policies.

We appreciate your permission to our use and disclosure of Your personal information in the method outlined below:

If You have questions please contact us

We accumulate and store personal information on servers located in our Data Center located in San Diego, California. To promote data security and prevent unauthorized access, we employ a variety of encryption technologies, passwords, physical and electronic security as safeguards.

Below please find some of the information we collect:

- Contact Data: email address, physical address information and financial information;
- Desired domain name and desired name for Your Store;
- General information on the subscribed Business eStore Services.
- In addition, we can and occasionally review sales, order and other store statically data.

This information is utilized and reviewed to enhance our services, resolve disputes and customer complaints, prepare and collect fees and resolve issues with our services.

Your personal information may be used in select corporate marketing and press related activities. Your permission and approval of quotes may be requested.

As part of your subscription for Business eStore Services on the Business eStore Site, You agree that You may receive certain administrative communications from Business eStore, such as administrative announcements and customer service messages, company news letters and industry data. You acknowledge and agree to receive these notices and not opt out of such organizational and business oriented communications.

Please note that we do not sell or rent Your personal information. From time to time we may choose to partner with another company. If we choose to disclose your information to any third parties for their marketing purposes, it is only to enable them to offer you a special benefit as a Business eStore client. For your security, these third parties are prohibited from selling or renting your information to another party.

We delete personal information when it is no longer required.

We reserve the right to amend this Privacy Policy at any time by posting the amended terms on the Business eStore Site. In the event of amendment, all terms shall become effective 15 days after the data is posted.